To link to videos from Academic Video Online in D2L, please follow these instructions.

First, go to the Academic Video Online page.
If you are on campus you will go directly to the resource. If you are off-campus you must login to Academic Video Online using your MyJCCC username and ID.

Search for a film throughout all the collections by using the search box.
If you’d rather browse, click on menu:

Then choose ‘Disciplines’ to see the full list of topics. Click on any relevant area.
You can browse or search within the discipline collection.

Psychology

Psychology at Alexander Street provides a large and diverse collection of both video and text that focuses on how people think, feel, develop and change. The content covers topics such as human motivation, aggression, the brain, emotion, intelligence, memory and more.

Search inside this community

To link to the entire film:

- Click on the Embed/Link button under the film.
Use the Permanent link. The Embed code will not work in D2L.

Permanent link to "The City and the Self"

Copy and paste the link below to create a link to this page on another website:

Embed code for "The City and the Self"

Copy and paste the following code to embed this player in your website:

```html
<iframe src="http://ezproxy.jccc.edu/login?
url=https://search.alexanderstreet.com/embed/token/063o6chh68pj2c1h" frameborder="0" width="470" height="390" allowfullscreen"></iframe>
```

To add a links to a resource in D2L:

Click New and choose Create a Link.
Fill out a title for the film, copy and paste the link from Academic Video, add the s after http, and check the box next to ‘Open as External Resource’.

Important note: the beginning of the address must read as https not http. If the link starts with http, it may not work.

Click on Create.

Be sure to publish your work after you're done so that students can access the page.